OLYMPIC YOUTH STRINGS (OYStrs) is a Washington State nonprofit corporation, contributions to which are deductible as charitable deductions for federal income tax purposes under Section 501 (c) (3) of the IRC. Founded by Dr. Alan Rawson and Sandy Rawson in 2006, its purpose is to promote string orchestral and chamber music on the Olympic Peninsula. A growing list of events and ensembles includes the OYStrs Youth Ensemble and the Olympic Chamber Orchestra for adult community players.

Violinist Alan Rawson earned his Doctorate of Musical Arts degree in violin performance at the University of Colorado in Boulder. He has served on the music faculties of Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota and the University of Idaho in Moscow, and has recently retired from Minnesota State University Moorhead where he directed the University Orchestra and taught upper strings, and served as concertmaster of the Fargo-Moorhead Symphony for twenty years.

Pianist Sandy Rawson, a native of Fargo, North Dakota has been an active professional accompanist throughout her life, performing with numerous soloists and ensembles. Completing her Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance at the University of Minnesota, she continued her studies at the Musik Akademie in Vienna, Austria. Her love of music is equaled by her love for cooking, growing up with a passion for international cuisine and having lived in Europe and Japan.
